Aerated concrete anchor FPX M 8 I Version expansion anchor, drill hole diameter 10mm, suitable for screw diameter 8 ... 8mm, drill hole depth 95mm, length 75mm, material steel, other material quality, suitable for aerated concrete, the FPX-I allows easy tightening with a hexagonal key using a cordless screwdriver or ratchet and thus offers maximum ease of assembly. The controlled expansion of the anchor with the hexagon socket ensures safe, even and effortless assembly. The unique 4-fold expansion of the FPX-I using a square expansion sleeve prevents the anchor from rotating in the drill hole, ensures high tensile and transverse loads and thus means fewer attachment points. The release of the hexagonal key ensures automatic setting control with each setting process. The first steel anchor with ETA approval and fire protection for fastening in aerated concrete also enables use for safety-relevant fastenings. Approved for: aerated concrete with a compressive strength class of 2 to 7 N/mm<sup>2</sup>, aerated concrete wall and ceiling panels with a compressive strength of 3.3 to 4.4 N/mm<sup>2</sup> planked aerated concrete masonry, e.g. B. plastered, tiled, wallpapered etc
